Horecross passed from Wells to Winifred Cassey, married to Robert Howard, son of sir Robert Howard, knt. of the Bath, younger son of Thomas Howard, earl of Suffolk. His daughter and heir, Winifred, married Peter Giffard, of Chillington, esq.; and, having no issue, it passed to her heirs, the earl of Bristol John Hervey 1st Earl of Bristol 1665-1751 [CP], and lord Griffin of Braybrook [Edward Griffin 3rd Baron Griffin of Braybrooke 1693-1742 [CP]], who sold it, about 1734, to Webb; who, in 1748, sold it to the hon. Charles Talbot, whose son and heir, Charles, earl of Shrewsbury, took down the ancient house, and sold the estate to Hugo Meynel, esq. whose son is the present proprietor of it. Charles Howard of Lichfield, Staffs Esquire 1742-1791
m Ann .....

Filial gratitude and affection erect this marble to the memory of Charles Howard Esq.
who died January 24th, 1791, aged 48 years. And near this spot are deposited the remains of Ann his wife, who died February 1st, 1794, aged 55 years. Thou, whose maternal hand, in ductile youth, Wrote on my heart the characters of truth; Ah ! though thy converse may no more impart The precepts of a pure and noble heart; Ah! though no longer beams thy radiant eye A Mothers love, a Friend's sweet sympathy; Though in thy placid smile no more be traced A mind with every gentler virtue graced; Still for thy child thy bright example beams. To heav'n it points in soft aspiring gleams: When human frailties warp her erring soul, May its blest sway each wayward thought controul; Lead her the path thy blameless footsteps trod, Through mazy life, to meet, like thee, her God.
